NOTE:

- This includes a stipulation that before the start of the AGM the chair of the meeting is provided written notice from the absent member that another voting member is authorised to exercise votes on their behalf. This can be anytime up until the start of the AGM.
- However, if possible, it would assist the organisation of the AGM if you are able to return this completed proxy form to reception@vsa.org.nz by 5.00pm on Friday (12 November).
- An absent member is also obliged to
 - provide sufficient instruction and guidance to the authorised voting member about their preferences, and
 - ensure they can be contacted during the meeting by the the authorised voting member to ascertain their preferences if, for example, there is substantial debate about a motion and/or it has been substantively amended.
